MATTAPOISETT WHARF SLIPS

Selectmen continued a series of discussions on Mattapoisett Wharf with Norman Soares, wharf commissioner. George Henshaw, former wharf commissioner, attended as did Gerald Kellogg. The subject was a wharf slip for a harbormaster boat sometime in the future. George Henshaw described in part the various movements of spaces that leaves the harbormaster space now missing. It seems that past harbormasters were boatmen who used their own craft and so moved the harbormaster slip to utilize their own boat. In this process, the harbormaster spot has skipped all over the wharf and disappeared in the shuffle. Gerald Kellogg, concerned that he was invited as the last on the list to be assigned a slip and therefore a prime candidate to have it slip away, said that he had been on the list for 9 years before being assigned a boat slip. He said this was contrary to many others. He began to trace the various movements of boats along the wharf as if engaged in a game of musical chairs. He told the Selectmen that only a court order could remove him from his slip. Chairman R. William Blasdale assured Mr. Kellogg that the Selectmen were engaged in a look into the future and had no plans to remove anyone from an assigned slip. Blasdale said that if, in the future, the town voted a large boat for a harbormaster patrol, then a slip would have to be available for it. The Selectmen agreed that the best solution to the problem would be to place the town at the top of the waiting list and assign the next slip to the harbormaster. Then, as slips became available the best spot on the wharf could be assigned the town until it had the ideal location for the possible future boat.

RESCUE BOAT

Paul Bradley, Fire Chief, appeared before the Board to discuss putting the rescue boat in service. This boat is stored at Brownell's Boatyard because there is no place to house it. The boat, a gift of the Lions' Club, has to be equipped with expensive gear which must be available with the craft and protected. Mr. Bradley said there is no place in town to give proper inside protection to this boat. Chairman Blasdale said that he thought that the proper place for the boat was in the water ready to cast off and go. It was suggested that time trial be run by water and road to various points in town to see the quickest route. A meeting will be held with the rescue squad to continue the discussion.

Chief Bradley commended the rescue squad for their excellent work on the North Street accident. The driver had to be cut out of the car which was accomplished in an efficient manner with great care to protect the injured girl.

COUNCIL ON AGING LETTER

Council on Aging members confirmed in writing an agreement of June 29 to withhold resignations so that new members can be appointed to take over. As new members can qualify and take over the present members will relinquish their posts. The council requested complete control of the bus and bus program. They said that the increased rent on the hall for the lunch program has seriously strained their $2,000 budget, a fact that must be discussed at once because it leaves no money for any other program.

Mrs. Mary Stein submitted her resignation as Registrar of Voters effective August 2 which was accepted with regret. Mrs. Stein is moving out of town.

O.R.R. School Committee

PRESENT: Chairman Barbara Macy, Members Henry Bogins, Lori Kemp, Dorothea Pierce, Patricia Ryan, Gloria Vincent, George White, William Wood, Henry Woodward; Superintendent Joseph Kunces, Business Manager Andrew Santos, Principal David Hagen, Principal Robert Gardner, Director of Instruction James Pasquill, Mr. Charles Dunn of Mattapoisett; representatives of teachers, other spectators and reporters.

MEETING JULY 8

The Old Rochester Regional School District Committee met on July 8 in an adjourned meeting of Meeting No. 598 in the cafetorium of the Old Rochester Regional Junior High School. The minutes of the first portion of Meeting No. 598 were corrected, discussed and unanimously accepted.

The meeting began with an oral report by Dr. Kunces of a telephone conversation with Mr. Warren Carley, Committee Counsel, on the matter of the "one man, one vote" question presented by a group of concerned Mattapoisett residents in a letter to the Mattapoisett delegation to the Committee at the last meeting. Dr. Kunces told the Committee that Mr. Carley would like to meet with them to discuss the matter in more detail before he gave them a legal opinion. However, he did preface his remarks to Dr. Kunces with the assertion that if the matter did go into litigation, the courts would definitely uphold the "one man, one vote" principle in this case. Members Bogins and Wood said that they felt that Mr. Carley should attend so that the Committee could determine its position and proper course of action. Mr. Charles Dunn of Mattapoisett, representing the citizens' group, said that the group is in an action phase at present and that the member towns have to take

Is your house feeling a bit under the weather? Homes do occasionally. Plumbing gets indigestion, washing machines get hiccups and teenage electric systems behave as shockingly as attics with growing pains. The little bugs they come down with (like termites) or the colds they catch from furnace fatigue make them pretty tough to live with.

some suitable action to correct the situation. He said that "the most direct route would be to have this Committee direct legal counsel to prepare suitable articles to correct the flaw in representation and present the articles to the Selectmen of the three towns for consideration at special town meetings. We feel the merits of this proposal are as follows: Litigation is avoided. The litigation would have to be in the form of a citizens' suit against the region and the three towns or by one town seeking legal relief. Litigation is costly, time-consuming and appears fruitless except as a costly and divisive delaying tactic. Secondly, litigation would raise the question of the legality of the actions of the Committee once the matter is turned over to the court, which we are not particularly

Third, once the matter is turned over to the courts for decision there is always the possibility that matters in addition to legal representation may become involved, by the action of the court. MEETING JULY 13

PRESENT: Chairman Barbara Macy, Members Henry Bogins, Lori Kemp, Dorothea Pierce, Patricia Ryan, Gloria Vincent, George White, William Wood, Henry Woodward; Superintendent Joseph Kunces, Business Manager Andrew Santos, Principal Robert Gardner, Principal David Hagen, Mr. Warren Carley of the law firm of Ropes and Gray; Mr. Charles B. Dunn of Mattapoisett, representatives of teachers, Committee Secretary Joyce Jason, other spectators and reporters.

The Old Rochester Regional School District Committee met on July 13 in the cafetorium of the Old Rochester Regional Junior High School.

At the beginning of the meeting, Chairman Macy read a letter that she received from the Marion Board of Selectmen on the current "one man, one vote" discussions. The letter as read by Mrs. Macy: "The Marion Board of Selectmen oppose the one man, one vote concept for the composition of the Old Rochester Regional School Committee. We support the philosophy expressed in Section 1A of the original 1958 agreement which formed the Regional School district among the towns of Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester. Section 1A of the agreement calls for a nine member committee, three from each member town. The composition of the Old Rochester Regional School Committee has worked effectively for eighteen years. The Marion Board of Selectmen will vigorously oppose any effort to amend section 1A of the agreement among the Towns."

You'll like our interest in your account

The trouble with saving money in a mattress or an old sock is that you lose interest.

You can also lose interest by putting your money in a bank that pays lower interest rates than NBIS.

We pay higher rates than most banks. And it's compounded continuously. Not quarterly, not monthly, not weekly, but continuously. That gives you a little extra interest.

Here are the interest rates we pay on various kinds of savings, with the effective annual rate. Compare them with what your bank pays.

Or what your mattress pays.

Type of Savings	Rate Per Annum	Effective Annual Rate

Chairman Macy then introduced Committee Counsel Warren Carley of the law firm of Ropes and Gray of Boston and asked Mr. Carley to advise the Committee as to how it should proceed with the meeting. The Committee was advised by Mr. Carley that any discussion between himself and the Committee on strategy and tactics in possible litigation should be held in executive session. After a brief discussion, the Committee, on a motion by Member Wood, seconded by Member Woodward, voted to defer all business until after discussing strategy and tactics for possible litigation with Mr. Carley. Then on a motion by Member Ryan, seconded by Member Woodward, the Committee voted 7 to 2 (Members Pierce and Wood dissenting) to go into executive session (7:35 PM).

The open meeting reconvened at 9:35 PM. The Committee proceeded to discuss a petition received from 43 students to institute a course in Black History. The Superintendent advised the Committee that the petition was not legally filed, and thus could be rejected on that basis, but suggested that the Committee discuss the matter since it was offered in good faith. Member Bogins moved that the petition be referred to Principal Hagen to see if another way could be found to meet the needs of the petitioners. The motion was seconded by Member Kemp, and passed unanimously.

The Committee then proceeded to discuss the program of instruction offered at the Junior High called "Man, A Course Of Study" (MACOS). MACOS is a social studies course based on the use of anthropology and sociology, according to Director of Instruction James M. Pasquill. Mr. Pasquill presented a report on the course to the Committee that evaluated its performance and outlined the plans for the coming school year. Members Pierce and Wood both said that they had received many negative comments from parents on the value and propriety of MACOS in the seventh grade. Several spectators spoke on the subject, pointing out both good and bad aspects of the course. Member Wood moved to drop MACOS from the curriculum in favor of a more traditional social studies and geography program. After more discussion, Mr. Wood amended his motion to provide MACOS only as an alternative, the choice between MACOS and a traditional program to be left up to the students. The motion was seconded by Member Pierce, but was rejected by the Committee. The Committee finally decided to allow the Administration to review the course in more detail and report back to the Committee in August. Principal Gardner noted at the end of the discussion that he had received more compliments and praise for MACOS than complaints.

In other business, the Committee:

REVIEWED instructional class loads for the 1976-1977 school year and accepted Director of Instruction Pasquill's report on class loads.

REVIEWED the minutes of the Educational Council and accepted the recommendation to continue the exploratory foreign language

Grange Grant Rejected

Dennis Sylvia, master of the Mattapoisett Grange, has learned that a HUD grant for which application was made after the Grange Hall was designated as an historic place, has been turned down by that federal agency because the project is not considered to be high on the priority list. Mr. Sylvia had not been aware of this decision which reached the town in the Spring. The condition of the Grange Hall roof demands some major restoration since 3 of the main roof beams have rotted out and need replacement and the roof is leaking in the tower area. Mr. Sylvia said that the Grange does have some $2500. put aside for restoration work but that money has not been used since the HUD grant would demand matching funds and also the grant specified what work could be done with the money and what could not. He said that the Grange did not want to use up its funds and then have none to match the grant and thus lose that money. For this reason, the Grange has been awaiting word of the status of the grant before proceeding with definite restoration plans even though the need is urgent. In the interim, Executive Secretary to the Board of Selectmen, Stephen Lombard, received word in the Spring of the HUD rejection of the project. He notified Mrs. Samuel Spaulding of the Historical District Committee which was responsible for having the Grange Hall designated as an historic place. Word did not reach Grange officials, however. Mr. Lombard, in April of this year, after the HUD rejection, applied for a Massachusetts' Historical Commission grant in the amount of $25,000. No word has been received on the status of this request.

Mr. Sylvia wants to inform the townspeople, who have responded so generously to aid the Grange members to repair their hall, that this donated money is available but that construction work is so costly that it is felt that it should be completed as a single project (it costs $600.-$700. just to assemble a staging). For this reason, and because of the matching funds stipulation, the Grange is awaiting a decision on the latest grant application. While delayed, the members will gratefully accept any new donations because roof repair is imperative, grant or no grant.

Mr. Sylvia said a meeting will be held within a week with the building committee to discuss the matter. George White of that

SENIOR SATURDAY SERIES

On Saturday, July 10th, MYC held the third and fourth races of the Senior Saturday Series. Fine sailing weather with clear skies and brisk S-SW breezes varying from 12-18 miles per hour greeted the fleet of seven Beetle Cats at the starting line -- and they made the most of it!

In the first contest, Harvey Pentleton in Swamp Fox led almost halfway of the 4-legged course, with Dave Jenney's Ariel and Mason Smith's M2 not far astern. As they neared Barnard's Wharf MYC Guide Buoy (the third marker), Jenney closed the gap and continued on to win, but not without strong competition. In the meantime, Jim Broadwater in Agamemnon had come from behind and engaged Mason Smith in a lively duel for third place. It ended with Dave Jenney, first; Harvey Pentleton, se-

In the second race, as the wind built up so did the action. It began with Dave Jenney out front during the first leg and developed into a very exciting run before the wind between Jenney's Ariel and Mason Smith's M2, as they sailed from the Mattapoisett Neck to the Crescent Beach MYC Guide Buoys. At this point Harvey Pentleton in Swamp Fox seized the initiative and passed M2, as they rounded the marker. From there on in, the last leg of the triangular course became a grueling close haul between Jenney and Pentleton. Finally, one-third from the finish line, Swamp Fox pulled ahead. The fate of the third place contenders was also decided on the concluding stretch. J. K. Bay-low's Lightning Bug had been gaining momentum throughout the race until it encountered

WEDNESDAY EVENING SERIES

The first race in the Wednesday Evening Series at MYC got under way at 6:30 P.M. July 14, with two divisions: Beetle Cats and Lasers, participating. John Cornish and Arthur Bond shared top honors.

The weather, at the outset, was far from cooperative, what with light 5-6 mile winds from the S-SW and darkening skies in the offing; and it became less so after the skippers were on their way.

An identical 4-legged course was plotted for both fleets.

By the time the Beetle Cats neared their second marker, the breezes had dropped to almost zero and rain pelted the area. Signal flags went up then to end their race at this halfway point. John Cornish at the helm of Barby Jo won quite handily. For the other two Beetle Cats, it was a nip and tuck contest, with the lead shifting back and forth many times. Finally Paul Downey's Ask Mom bested Faith Jenney's Ariel.

For the four Lasers, the start proved to be a very competitive one, but Arthur Bond moved out front and held that position, with Toby Burr ahead of Norman Gordon. (The Lasers, incidentally, completed the course: to Molly's Cove MYC Guide Buoy, to Ned's Point MYC Guide Buoy, to Mattapoisett Neck MYC Guide Buoy and to finish.)

Children's Museum

BEACH WALK

This Saturday morning, July 24, at 10:00 the Children's Museum will lead a nature walk on one of the local beaches. The beaches around Dartmouth and Westport abound with tiny intertidal creatures and that will be the subject of this walk.

People are asked to meet at the parking lot at the Museum Outdoors at 100 Old Westport Road in North Dartmouth. From there, we will take the museum van to the beach. Because of the time involved to drive to the beach, this walk will last about 2 hours. All adults as well as children accompanied by an adult are welcome. Admission is free.

ing Nurse Association has completed sixty-two years of dedicated service to the need for home nursing in the town. Mrs. Edna Archer, R.N., is the administrator. Mrs. Archer is a highly qualified staff nurse with many years of nursing experience. She is ably assisted by three part-time staff nurses: Mrs. Barbara Shesky, R.N.; Mrs. Mary Gallini, R.N.; and Mrs. Barbara Wiker, R.N. These four competent women are kept very busy. There were over 1500 visits made in the past year. Eleven Well-Child Clinics were held and a free Blood Pressure clinic was conducted in May. Monthly Senior Citizen health counseling sessions are included in the services given by our staff. Similar health services are also available in Rochester.

The cost of maintaining this service is tremendous. Government payments are slow. The MVNA is a self-supporting organization and financial help from the people of the town is needed if these expanded services are to be continued. A volunteer worker will call at each house on Monday, July 26th, to receive contributions. Please try to be as generous as possible. All contributions are tax deductible. In the event that you are out when the volunteer calls, we would appreciate it if you would mail your contribution in the envelope left by the volunteer to Mrs. Gordon Goodwin, Box 364, Marion, Mass. 02738.

young people in eight Up With People casts have toured across the USA performing in over 800 communities in 50 states. An additional cast is touring Poland, Yugoslavia, Austria, Switzerland and Holland.

At the invitation of the Moby Dick Council, Boy Scouts of America, Up With People will visit Somerset and New Bedford. Public performances of the Up With People show, featuring an international cast, are scheduled for Monday, July 26th, at the Somerset High School; and July 27th, 28th, and 29th, at New Bedford High School. All shows begin at 8 P.M. Seeking total community involvement cast members will live in private homes throughout the New Bedford area.

Accompanying this outreach is this year's new musical production from Up With People. The "Up With People" theme and through the provoking "What Color is God's Skin?", two songs which over the years have celebrated the importance and equality of people, return with renewed emphasis in this year's show. Original arrangements combine with a series of other medleys; one features global folk heritage from such diverse lands as Venezuela, Ireland, and Belgium. "Save the Dancer" focuses upon the essence of hope alive in mankind throughout history. "The Farm House", by Up With People's 23 city tour of Yugoslavia last year, mirrors discovery of unexpected treasure in the lives of a peasant community. With toes tappin'
